

MICHAEL PAWELCZYK

Practice Areas

Governmental Law
Land Use
Real Estate

Michael Pawelczyk joined Billing, Cochran, Lyles, Mauro & Ramsey in 2005 after serving two years as an Assistant City Attorney for the City of Boynton Beach, five years as an Assistant City Attorney for the City of Fort Lauderdale, and three years of private practice representing numerous municipal, local government, and private clients.

Mr. Pawelczyk's practice now focuses primarily on representation of special purpose governmental districts, community development districts, local governments, and land developers, builders, and other business clients in connection with land use, code compliance, and real estate matters.

Mr. Pawelczyk has served as the code compliance hearing officer for Islamorada, Village of Islands since 2005.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

University of Illinois - Urbana, B.A.
(1991)

Paul M. Hebert Law Center - Louisiana State University
(J.D. 1994)

MEMBER

The Florida Bar (1994)

Broward County Bar Association

U.S. District Court Southern District of Florida (1995)

U.S. Court of Appeals Eleventh Circuit
(2001)